

LUCKY LYCHEE

AT THE GREEN MAN

Our drinks are selected to pair with our vibrant food but also designed for enjoying by themselves.

Our wines are predominantly low-intervention with some classic options. Whites lean towards fresh and aromatic, reds tend to be riper with less tannin and lighter oak. There are also skin-contact wines for the curious, which match our food brilliantly.

A small but carefully formed and classically inspired cocktail list sits alongside cask ales, premium lagers, IPAs and world beers.

We also serve whole leaf teas, mostly single origin and organic. Our homemade Malaysian lime & lemongrass iced tea is also a great AF option.

A rich, harmonious, aromatic palate of citrus, pears, apples and apricots, with subtle notes of hazelnuts and brioche. The 4-year lees ageing is longer than most of its counterparts and required by law, gives it refinement and complexity.

Benchmark Dry Riesling from brothers Christoph and Johannes Thörle has converted many Riesling doubters with its fantastic texture, lemon sherbet palate, and minerality. With bright acidity and a complex finish, it is excellent to pair with our food.

Xarel-lo fermented in Amphoras, Loxarel, 2019, Penedes, Spain ~ 36 (btl)

Fascinating wine with incredible depth and mouthfeel from 4th generation Cava producers. Biodynamic and incorporates as much of nature as is possible in the winemaking process, down to using goats to de-leaf the vines. From older vines and is aged for 8 months in clay amphora prior to bottling. It is steely fresh, bright, with complex notes of citrus, pear, and herbs.

ORANGE / ROSÉ

Wines by the glass can be served in 125ml measures by request

Vol de Nuit Rosé, Le Loup Bleu, 2021, Cotes de Provence, France ~ 8 (175ml) / 32 (btl)

Classic pale pink wine from the hills above Puyloubier in Provence owned by French couple Marc and Sylvie Dubois who work by hand without chemical intervention. This is all about Spring and Summer and it's a pleasure to drink with cherry, peach, and redcurrant on the nose. On the palate it is clean, fresh and complex with some fennel notes too.

Taronja de Gris Orange, Domaine Lafage, 2020, Languedoc-Roussillon, France ~ 32 (btl)

Full bodied and aromatic with lively flavours. On the nose the aromas are perfumed with hints of orange peel and ginger spice. On the palate it is refreshing with tannic grip and a twist of bitterness like you might find with a negroni. Quirky and intriguing but hopefully not for the sake of it!

Vea Trebbiano Macerato Orange, Pietro Beconcini, 2019, IGT Toscana, Italy ~ 38 (btl)

Winemakers Leo and Eva Bellagamba produce this delicious and rich skin contact wine from small amounts of Trebbiano that Leo grows organically. With notes of mandarin peel, orange blossom, backed up by some smokiness of white pepper and spiced ginger. Pairs perfectly well with our chicken curry, rendang, satay, karaage and even Marmite chicken, it's not surprising it's our favourite!
